

Penn300 Events

William Penn, 1644 – 1718

Visionary, Activist and Pioneer with a groundbreaking and lasting impact

Penn's Legacy 300 years on – still relevant today

25 June to 30 July; 2pm to 5pm. An Exhibition about Penn and his legacy (Tuesdays to Sundays)

27 June; 7pm. Andrew Murphy Supper and Talk.

Andrew is currently writing the first major biography of Penn in decades, making full use of Penn's complete collected papers.

14 July; 3pm. Afternoon Tea with the Penns. Try Gulielma's recipes – have they stood the test of time?

21 July; 7:30pm. Nigel Pascoe

A One Man re-enactment of the Penn-Mead trial.

29 July, 3pm. Noting Penn: Concert of words and music with extracts from Penn's writings and music from the period. Refreshments afterwards.

Contact us for more information:

Jordans Quaker Meeting House, Welders Lane, Jordans, HP9 2SN 01494 876594
office@jordansquakercentre.org